

making business sense

planning and local development understanding the drivers of prosperity at a local level

- forecasting regional and local business trends
- developing sound local economic development strategies
- understanding the opportunities for and constraints on local business
- ensuring that spatial plans reflect the future potential of the local economy
- articulating economics arguments at planning enquiries
- understanding the complexities of local economies
- making sense of property markets

©2010 CEBR
Built on Cubik

Sign In