

making business sense

tax, regulation and government policy providing independent and robust evaluation of public policy

- demonstrating the effect on your industry of government policy
- informing government decisions
- evaluating proposed legislation
- assessing the economic impact of health and safety regulations
- using economics research as evidence in enquiries, tribunals and litigation
- helping develop sound research methods to inform policy decisions
- providing regular analysis of government policy in the UK and abroad

©2010 CEBR
Built on Cubik

Sign In